Did you know there's $$$ in Bible Quiz?

We haven't started the season yet, but It's not too early to begin thinking about the END of the season. That's when we hand out awards for what you have accomplished during the season.

Be sure to look at the available awards and take the steps necessary to put yourself and your students in a position to achieve them.

Last year, students won $1300 during our District Finals Quoting Bee...and we're doing it again! More money and even college scholarships are possible as well! (Last year at National Finals two students won full-ride, 4-year scholarships to Lindenwood University!)
